- 28 SECTION 10. P.L.61-2005, SECTION 1, IS AMENDED TO
- 29 READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: SECTION
- 30 1. (a) As used in this SECTION, "committee" refers to the sentencing
- 31 policy study committee established by subsection (c).

(b) The general assembly finds that a comprehensive study of sentencing laws and policies is desirable in order to:

- (1) ensure that sentencing laws and policies protect the public safety;
- (2) establish fairness and uniformity in sentencing laws and policies;
- (3) determine whether incarceration or alternative sanctions are appropriate for various categories of criminal offenses; and
- (4) maximize cost effectiveness in the administration of sentencing laws and policies.

(c) The sentencing policy study committee is established to evaluate sentencing laws and policies as they relate to:

- (1) the purposes of the criminal justice and corrections systems;
- (2) the availability of sentencing options; and
- (3) the inmate population in department of correction facilities.

If, based on the committee's evaluation under this subsection, the committee determines changes are necessary or appropriate, the committee shall make recommendations to the general assembly for the modification of sentencing laws and policies and for the addition, deletion, or expansion of sentencing options.

(d) The committee shall do the following:

- (1) Evaluate the existing classification of criminal offenses into felony and misdemeanor categories. In determining the proper category for each felony and misdemeanor, the committee shall consider, to the extent they have relevance, the following:

(A) The nature and degree of harm likely to be caused by the offense, including whether the offense involves property, irreplaceable property, a person, a number of persons, or a breach of the public trust.

(B) The deterrent effect a particular classification may have on the commission of the offense.

(C) The current incidence of the offense in Indiana.

(D) The rights of the victim.

- (2) Recommend structures to be used by a sentencing court in determining the most appropriate sentence to be imposed in a criminal case, including any combination of imprisonment, probation, restitution, community service, or house arrest. The committee shall also consider the following:

(A) The nature and characteristics of the offense.

(B) The severity of the offense in relation to other offenses.

(C) The characteristics of the defendant that mitigate or aggravate the seriousness of the criminal conduct and the punishment deserved for that conduct.

(D) The defendant's number of prior convictions.

(E) The available resources and capacity of the department of correction, local confinement facilities, and community based sanctions.

(F) The rights of the victim.

The committee shall include with each set of sentencing structures an estimate of the effect of the sentencing structures on the department of correction and local facilities with respect to both fiscal impact and inmate population.

(3) Review community corrections and home detention programs for the purpose of:

(A) standardizing procedures and establishing rules for the supervision of home detainees; and

(B) establishing procedures for the supervision of home detainees by community corrections programs of adjoining counties.

(4) Determine the long range needs of the criminal justice and corrections systems and recommend policy priorities for those systems.

(5) Identify critical problems in the criminal justice and corrections systems and recommend strategies to solve the problems.

(6) Assess the cost effectiveness of the use of state and local funds in the criminal justice and corrections systems.

(7) Recommend a comprehensive community corrections strategy based on the following:

(A) A review of existing community corrections programs.

(B) The identification of additional types of community corrections programs necessary to create an effective continuum of corrections sanctions.

(C) The identification of categories of offenders who should be eligible for sentencing to community corrections programs and the impact that changes to the existing system of community corrections programs would have on sentencing practices.

(D) The identification of necessary changes in state oversight and coordination of community corrections programs.

(E) An evaluation of mechanisms for state funding and local community participation in the operation and implementation of community corrections programs.

(F) An analysis of the rate of recidivism of clients under the supervision of existing community corrections programs.

(8) Propose plans, programs, and legislation for improving the effectiveness of the criminal justice and corrections systems.

(9) Evaluate the use of faith based organizations as an alternative to incarceration.

(10) Study issues related to sex offenders, including:

(A) lifetime parole;

(B) GPS or other electronic monitoring;

(C) a classification system for sex offenders;

(D) recidivism; and

(E) treatment.

(e) The committee may study other topics assigned by the legislative council or as directed by the committee chair.

1 (f) The committee consists of nineteen (19) members appointed as
2 follows:

3 (1) Four (4) members of the senate, not more than two (2) of
4 whom may be affiliated with the same political party, to be
5 appointed by the president pro tempore of the senate.

6 (2) Four (4) members of the house of representatives, not more
7 than two (2) of whom may be affiliated with the same political
8 party, to be appointed by the speaker of the house of 9 representatives.

10 (3) The chief justice of the supreme court or the chief justice's
11 designee.

12 (4) The commissioner of the department of correction or the 13 commissioner's designee.

14 (5) The director of the Indiana criminal justice institute or the 15 director's designee.

16 (6) The executive director of the prosecuting attorneys council of
17 Indiana or the executive director's designee.

18 (7) The executive director of the public defender council of
19 Indiana or the executive director's designee.

20 (8) One (1) person with experience in administering community
21 corrections programs, appointed by the governor.

22 (9) One (1) person with experience in administering probation
23 programs, appointed by the governor.

24 (10) Two (2) judges who exercise juvenile jurisdiction, not more
25 than one (1) of whom may be affiliated with the same political
26 party, to be appointed by the governor.

27 (11) Two (2) judges who exercise criminal jurisdiction, not more
28 than one (1) of whom may be affiliated with the same political
29 party, to be appointed by the governor.

30 (g) The chairman of the legislative council shall appoint a legislative 31 member of the committee to serve as chair of the committee. Whenever
32 there is a new chairman of the legislative council, the new chairman
33 may remove the chair of the committee and appoint another chair.

34 (h) If a legislative member of the committee ceases to be a member
35 of the chamber from which the member was appointed, the member
36 also ceases to be a member of the committee.

37 (i) A legislative member of the committee may be removed at any 38 time by the appointing authority who appointed the legislative member.

39 (j) If a vacancy exists on the committee, the appointing authority
40 who appointed the former member whose position is vacant shall
41 appoint an individual to fill the vacancy.

42 (k) The committee shall submit a final report of the results of its
43 study to the legislative council before November 1, 2006. The report
44 must be in an electronic format under IC 5-14-6.

45 (l) The Indiana criminal justice institute shall provide staff support
46 to the committee.

47 (m) Each member of the committee is entitled to receive the same
48 per diem, mileage, and travel allowances paid to individuals who serve

1 as legislative and lay members, respectively, of interim study
2 committees established by the legislative council.

3 (n) The affirmative votes of a majority of the members appointed to
4 the committee are required for the committee to take action on any
5 measure, including the final report.

6 (o) Except as otherwise specifically provided by this act, the
7 committee shall operate under the rules of the legislative council. All
8 funds necessary to carry out this act shall be paid from appropriations
9 to the legislative council and legislative services agency.

10 (p) This SECTION expires December 31, 2006."

11 Renumber all SECTIONS consecutively.
